DAILY TRIBUNE.

CITY OF CHICAGO.

THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 1, 1855.

THE JESUIT AND WHISKEY TICKET.

The Irish, German Catholic and Whiskey Democracy have done themselves the honor of nominating upon which they mean to rally on next Tuesday. Which of these factions has the most votes in the pocket, which the most brains to direct its movements, and which the most impudence to claim the victory, we leave to our readers to determine. Isaac L. Milliken is their candidate for Mayor, Pat. Dalton for City Attorney, M. O'Meara for City Collector and Wm. Mayer, Jr., for Treasurer. The entire list selected from this motley and dirty crew will be found on the fourth page of this paper.

The nomination of Milliken will be hailed with delight by every gambler, rum-seller and whiskey-bummer in the city. He is the very man for the position. He has been a faithful servant of the Democracy, and has always been ready to do their dirty work, no matter how low or degrading it might be. He has been a faithful tool in the hands of the Democracy, and has always been ready to do their bidding, no matter how much it might degrade him in the estimation of the community. He has been a faithful servant of the Democracy, and has always been ready to do their bidding, no matter how much it might degrade him in the estimation of the community. He has been a faithful servant of the Democracy, and has always been ready to do their bidding, no matter how much it might degrade him in the estimation of the community.

KERSHAW, THE DOUGLAS CANDIDATE FOR SPEAKER.

The Douglas Democracy have succeeded in electing their candidate for Speaker of the House of Representatives, by the casting vote of Lieut. Gov. Medary, who presided over the Senate during the absence of Gov. Reeder. Kershaw is a Douglas Democrat, and will, of course, shape the committees in accordance with the views of his party. He is a man of ability, and will, no doubt, discharge the duties of his office with fairness and impartiality.

THE SLAVERY QUESTION IN CONGRESS.

The Douglas Democracy of Illinois, in their State Convention, declared that the slavery question was settled by the Compromise measures of 1850, and that they would have nothing to do with it. Their Representatives in Congress, in accordance with this declaration, have done all in their power to prevent the discussion of the slavery question in Congress. They have voted down every proposition to refer petitions relating to slavery to a committee, and have voted to lay on the table every proposition to discuss the question. They have done all in their power to prevent the people from having their petitions heard, and their grievances redressed. They have done all in their power to prevent the people from having their petitions heard, and their grievances redressed. They have done all in their power to prevent the people from having their petitions heard, and their grievances redressed.

THE DOUGLAS DEMOCRACY AND THE PRESS.

The Democratic Press of the West has given the following edition of a letter from Judge Douglas to his constituents. We are informed that it was written in reply to a letter from a Democratic editor, asking for information upon the subject of the Nebraska bill. The letter is addressed to the Democratic Press, and is dated at Washington, March 1, 1854. It is as follows:

"There is no truth in the reports about my having pledged to any party or any body else to any course in relation to the Nebraska bill. I have given no pledge to any person, and will not do so."

And, again, this the Press considerately remarks:

"It is a misfortune of the Democratic party, affecting to each and every one of its members, as well as to the party itself, that the Democratic Press is compelled to have it, that the Democratic Press is compelled to have it, that the Democratic Press is compelled to have it
